RE: LOUANGRATH, Adoune
DOCKET NO.: 2:13CR00114-002
REQUEST FOR MODIFICATION OF
PRETRIAL RELEASE CONDITIONS

Your Honor:

On July 9, 2013, the above-noted defendant made his initial appearance in this matter before the Honorable Cynthia Imbrogno, U.S. Magistrate Judge, in Spokane, Washington. Mr. Louangrath was detained pending a detention hearing.

On July 12, 2013, a detention hearing was held. The Court took the matter of detention under advisement.

On August 1, 2013, the Court ordered Mr. Louangrath be released from custody under conditions of pretrial release supervision. On or about August 12, 2013, the defendant posted bond and was released from custody.

The defendant resides in Fresno, California, and is supervised by the U.S. Pretrial Services Office in the Eastern District of California. The purpose of this letter is to request two modifications of Mr. Louangrath's conditions of pretrial release supervision.

The supervising pretrial services officer (USPSO) in the Eastern District of California assigned to supervise the defendant reported to this officer that Mr. Louangrath has requested to travel to Clovis, California, for the purpose of grocery shopping. Clovis, California, is located next to Fresno, California. According to his pretrial release conditions, Mr. Louangrath's travel is restricted to Fresno, California, and the Eastern District of Washington for court appearances. Subsequently, the USPSO denied the defendant's request to enter into Clovis, California.

LOUANGRATH, Adoune

The USPSO advised other defendants who reside in the Eastern District of California are typically allowed to travel within that district. Therefore, this officer respectfully requests that Mr. Louangrath's travel restrictions be modified to allow him to travel within the Eastern District of California, as well as the Eastern District of Washington for court appearances.

In addition, Mr. Louangrath has been ordered to comply with a curfew, as directed by the pretrial services office, without the benefit of electronic monitoring. Without electronic monitoring, the USPSO contacts Mr. Louangrath randomly during the night to verify his compliance with the curfew requirement. The U.S. Pretrial Services Office in the Eastern District of California would prefer an electronic monitoring condition be imposed so that Mr. Louangrath's curfew condition could be more effectively monitored. The cost for electronic monitoring in the Eastern District of California is $3.19 per day. This officer respectfully requests the defendant's conditions be modified to include an electronic monitoring requirement.

This officer has discussed the above-noted modification requests with defense counsel and the assistant U.S. attorney. Neither party is opposed to the above-noted modifications of the defendant's pretrial release conditions. Enclosed with this letter is a consent to modify conditions of release. Mr. Louangrath and the assigned USPSO in the Eastern District of California discussed the release modification and the defendant signed the document.

Should the Court have any further questions, please contact the undersigned officer.

Respectfully submitted,

Scott M. Morse, Sr.
Chief U.S. Probation Officer
